

Review of: "Climate Change and Sustainability: A Comparative Case Study"

Rashi Malpani

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

A very good topic and an initiative to write an article. There is a need to add more references to substantiate the claims wherever required.

Provide data as well as sources concerning Indian Population. Discuss about the initiative taken by big multinationals and role of Indian startups for environment. Then discuss about the gap. Recommendation to be added to the government of India.
